Dedication

In our treasure chest of memories, there is always one that is worth more than all the jewels in the world. The same applies to the friends and persons whom we have met in our College life. We especially remember . . .

One who has devoted fifteen years of his life to the betterment of the "good ship NORTHWESTERN" . . .

One whose ready wit and lively humor has endeared him in the hearts of every boy and girl on the campus . . .

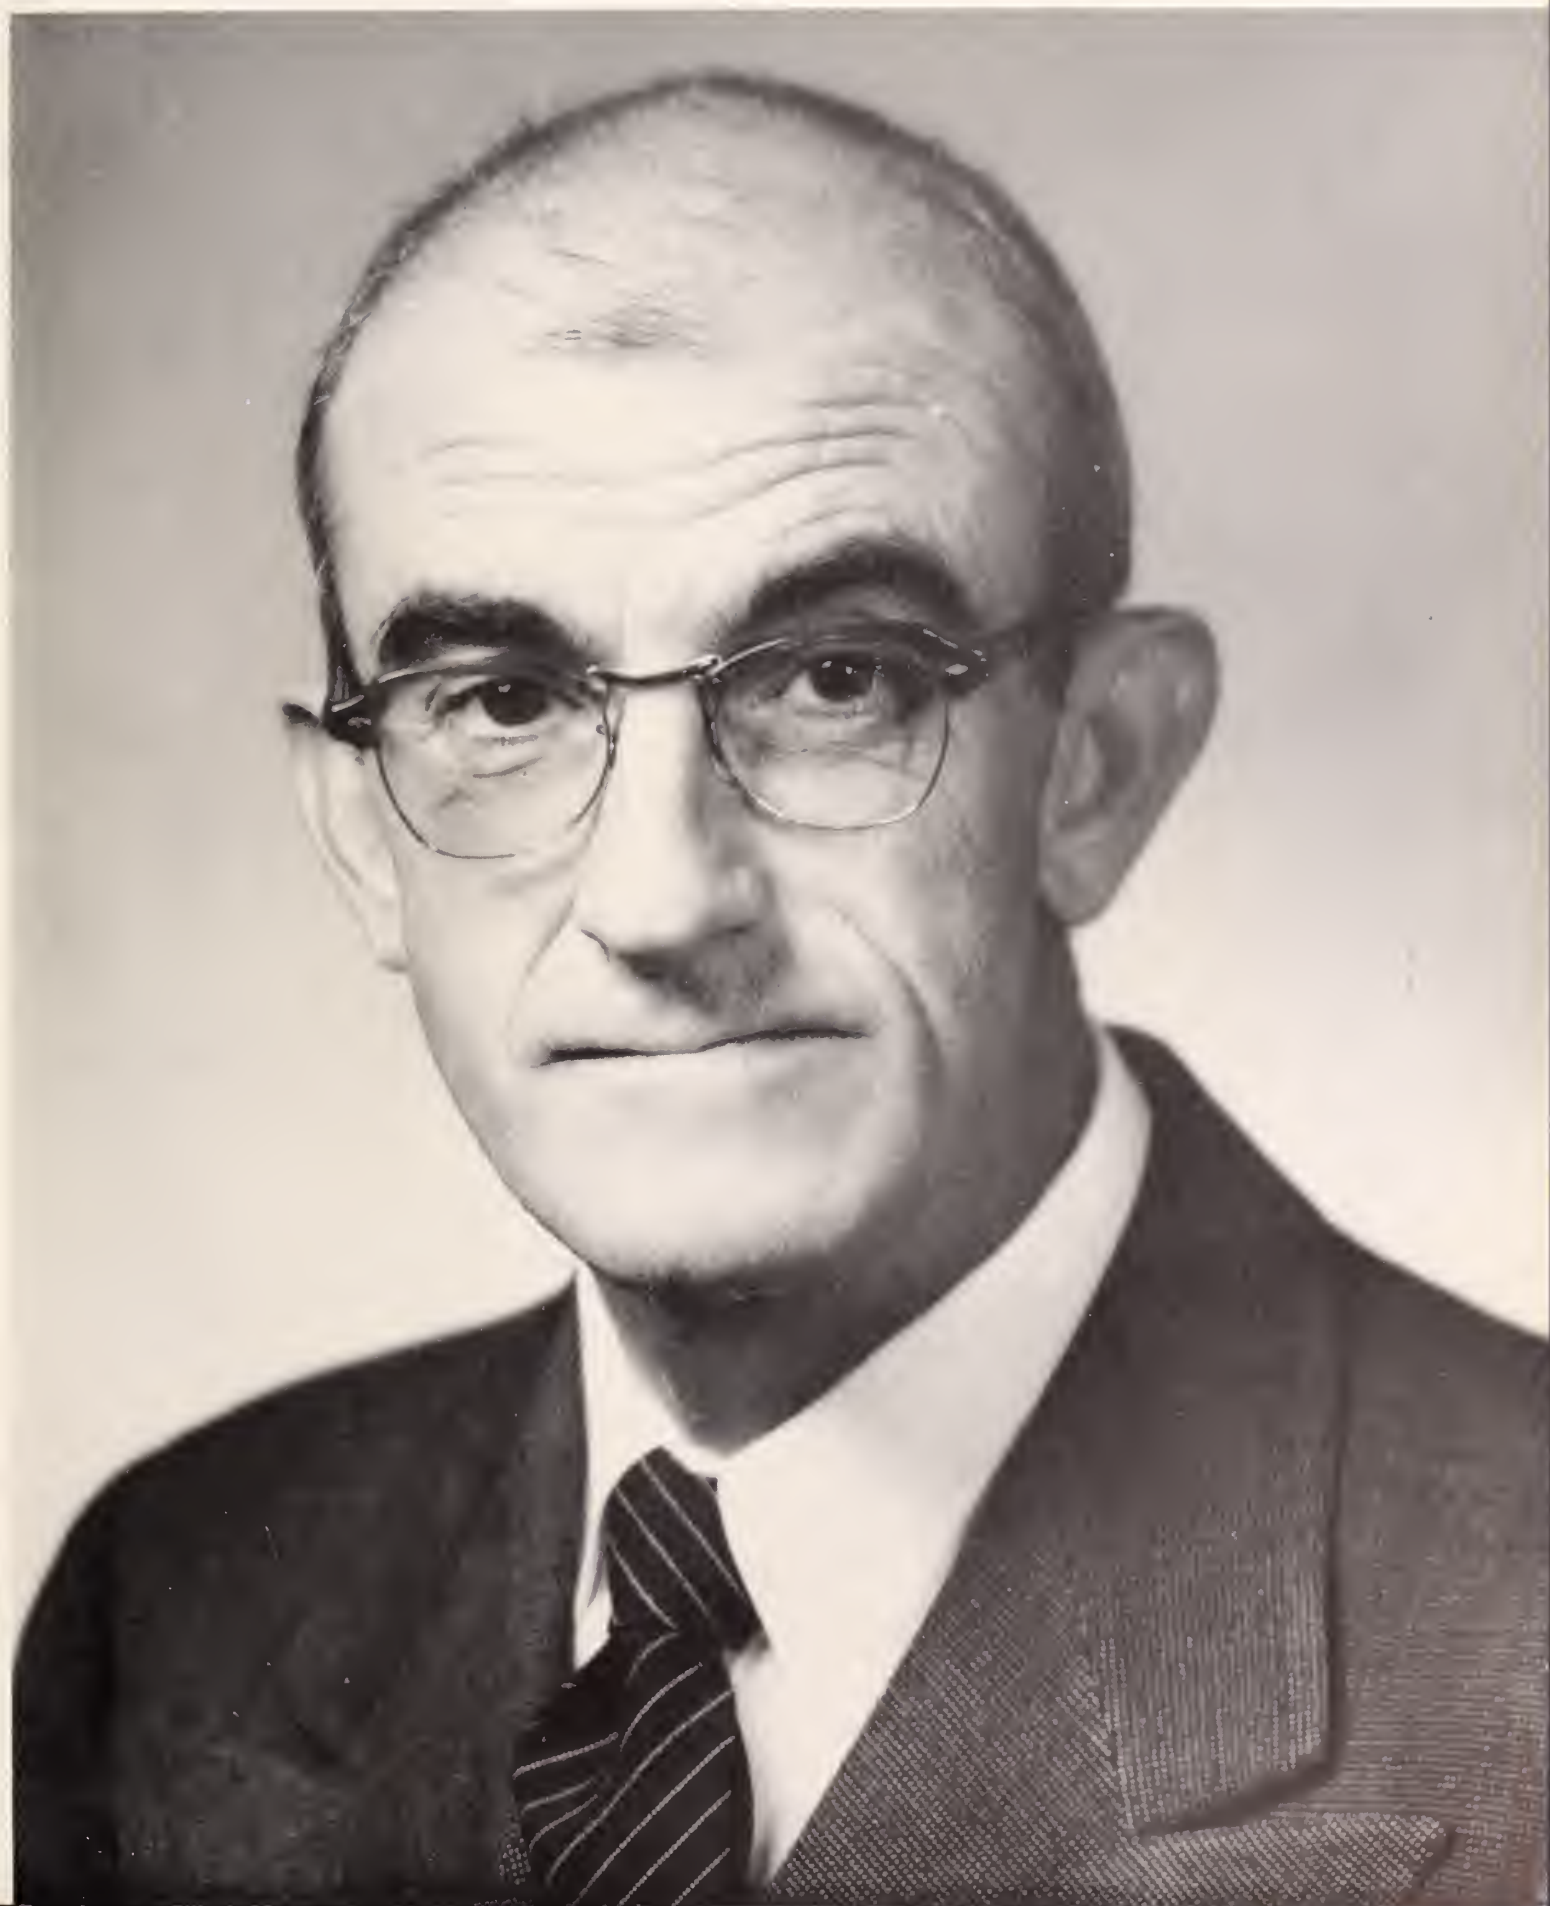

One who has made hundreds of friends among the students and faculty because he is never too busy to lend a helping hand . . .

One who is faithful and honest in his dealings with the people with whom he comes in contact . . .

One who is known and respected by men in schools throughout the state . . .

We proudly dedicate the 1954 POTPOURRI to

“DOC” PAUL C. MARX

THE PRESIDENT

MY VALEDICTORY

As I endeavor to write this, my valedictory message to the past and present students of Northwestern State College for the POTPOURRI of 1954, I am torn by many deep and varied emotions, I am once more made most poignantly aware of the emptiness of mere words and their utter inability to sound the depths of human emotions.

As we look back over the past forty years, we are impressed by the fact that they have been for us very good years indeed. If we have succeeded to some extent in pointing out the lasting benefits of healthful living, if we have impressed upon the minds of a few students our rich political heritage and the duties and responsibilities of citizenship under our form of government, if we have given proper emphasis to the importance of high ideals and of moral and spiritual values, if we have displayed even in the heat of conflict that degree of true sportsmanship which we have ever urged our teams to display, if we have been able to win without boasting and lose without griping, if we have helped to fan into flame the dying spark of ambition in the breast of some young man or woman. If we have helped to make it possible for deserving young men and women to secure an education who could not have done so without such help, if we have for the most part been kind, courteous and considerate, if when we have had to say "no," we have done so with a smile, and if we have consistently in passing judgment, tempered justice with mercy, then the forty years have not been spent in vain.

Au revoir, but not good bye.

Sincerely,

Coach Prather

T H E D E A N S

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Working closely with the Student Body, the Senate, and the Faculty, this year's Student Council fostered not only good will and cooperation between the various campus groups and organizations, but played an integral role in promoting and achieving the overwhelming rise in school spirit.

Planned by the Council were pep rallies, assemblies, elections, and numerous other programs, which supplied opportunities for the students to express themselves and to acquaint themselves with the college itself.

The Council played host to Louisiana Tech at the Shreveport State Fair, worked jointly with Louisiana College to stage the Cen-La Fair festivities, and played an important part in producing an effective Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities.

In Conjunction with the Senate, the Council built a float for the Christmas parade and worked to revise the Cut Sytem.

What's in the corner, Wanna Beth?

The Student Senate, the legislative branch of student government at Northwestern, continued its growth in prestige during its sixth year of existence on the campus. Though its primary function is legislative, the senate performed many other services to the NSC Student body.

The senate continued its sponsorship of the student film program, which brings educational and entertaining films to the campus. The editing of the student handbook was again done by the senate as another service outside its legislative duties. The handbook is published by the college as a quarterly and is issued to the incoming student.

In an attempt to show the student body that the legislative branch of student government can play an important role in campus life, the senate undertook an aggressive policy in performing services to the students, in making studies of campus situations, and in taking stands upon issues.

The senate was fortunate to have Mr. Leroi Eversull of the social studies department both as sponsor of the senate and of the film program. His assistance and advice proved indispensable to the proper functioning of the senate.

The senate was also fortunate in having members who were willing to work unselfishly in the interest of the student body and Northwestern State College.

The Honor Court has the delegated power to act in the event of violation or infraction of the rules which govern the conduct of men students on the campus. With the purposes of building higher standards of conduct and citizenship on the campus among the men students and to equitably administer justice through a student sponsored tribunal of men, the court, in itself, serves as a definite step forward in the trend to a more responsible student government.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The Associated Women Students Council was organized in 1947 and is a member of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. Through the years it has worked to promote, in cooperation with the Dean of Women, the intellectual, social and spiritual welfare of women students, to develop self-responsibility, and a spirit of cooperation and friendship; and to uphold high social and academic standards among women students. The Association is guided by the Executive Council and the Judicial Board acts in the event of violation of rules governing women students. Membership is automatic upon enrollment in the college. Help is given the freshmen women students through the Big Sister program and the work of Sophomore Counselors. The "A.W.S. Backwards Dance," Christmas at Home and Spring Convocation (at which awards are given) highlight the year's activities.

MISS CATHERINE WINTERS

The Purple Jacket Club which was founded by President V. L. Roy in 1927, is the oldest honor club to be organized on the campus. The group has been guided these many years by the capable hands of Miss Catherine Winters. It has as its purpose to serve the college and student body as their official representatives. The members act as assistant hostesses on college occasions. They assist, upon request, in carrying out any program of the faculty or administrative staff. They work together to further development of character and leadership. The Purple Jacket Club honors women students who have demonstrated good scholarship, good character and a desire to cooperate with all units of the college in unselfish service. Highlighting this year's Purple Jacket activities were the Purple Jacket Homecoming, annual Purple Jacket Review, and the Spring Trip.

Advice to Assoc. Editor from two experts.

Sports Writers???

The Current Sauce, under the editorship of Don Finley, strove to fulfill its obligations to the students through both its news columns and its editorial page, and to present each week an attractive and interesting paper.

By giving a complete coverage of campus news and by taking definite stands upon controversial issues, the Current Sauce published a weekly newspaper which the students looked forward to reading. Their interest was manifested in the many letters-to-the-editor that were received throughout the year.

The Current Sauce boasted of a competent and hard-working staff. Special mention should be made of Business Manager John Spataro and Sports Editor Billy Baker, who, along with the editor, formed the backbone of the Sauce. Thanks go also to Faculty Advisor John Merrill, whose assistance and advice was invaluable.

The staff feels that it finished the year with a job well done in presenting the student body with a Current Sauce of which Northwestern could be proud.

How did Myron manage this?

They mail them out every week.

They did the Class Section.

Can I say something?

THE 1954 POTPOURRI

This the 1954 POTPOURRI. is a tribute to the guiding hand of whatever fates protect the weak and the inconsistent. For without them, the people who are responsible for this concoction of pictures, lay-outs, copy, blood, sweat and tears would have never succeeded.

The year began way back last June when the "Big Three" trekked Nashville-ward to put on the layout paper of the Benson Printing Company their plans for the '54 POTPOURRI. Little did we realize then what faced us in the months to come. Classes cut, sleep and friends lost forever, the innumerable decisions to make, the grades in a spin, the beauties to be judged on television, the POTPOURRI BALL to be given—these were the forces we faced. But on our side was the hope that this POTPOURRI of 1954 would please every one in one way or another.

If it doesn't, blame it on Anne Hungerbeeler, who held the reins and cracked the whip; Wanna Beth Sanders, who tried to make ends meet; Gerald Tilleux, the Assistant Editor; and Billy Baker, who called himself the Student Advisor.

Our thanks go to Mr. John C. Merrill, Faculty Advisor, for his wonderful cooperation.

"Her Highness."

Tell me when you're ready.

THE CHOIR

"The College Singers" continue to live up to the superb performance standards established by their predecessors. One of the most remarkable accomplishments of this group is their continued superiority when the personnel changes each year. They always achieve a group unity, a personal pride in performance and an infectious enthusiasm which completely captivates their listeners.

They have become, for all practical purposes, an adopted child of the Elks. Last summer they sang at the National Convention of Elks in St. Louis where they gave fifteen performances in five days. We congratulate "the Singers" and their zealous director, "Mr. G." for the splendid representation they have given our school throughout the nation.

The traditional performance of Handel's "The Messiah" was again a welcome expression of the true spirit of Christmas in a land of firecrackers. The chorus of 160 was made up of the College chorus, and the College Singers, augmented by singers from the local community and neighboring towns.

DWIGHT DAVIS

THE BAND OF NORTHWESTERN

The Old Grind.

Salute to Tech at State Fair.

Besides offering good musical entertainment for spectators at football games, the band, under their able director, Dwight Davis, added colorful zest and pep to the spirit of N.S.C. fans.

Off the campus the Northwestern State Band has represented the college at the annual State Fair and Cen-La festivities. Their performance in parades and halftime ceremonies of football games in conjunction with the Demonettes proved complimentary to the college and music department.

At the end of the football season the marching band converts and becomes the concert band. Their spring concert in the Fine Arts Auditorium and their open air concerts of summer days are truly musical highlights of the year.

The Northwestern State Symphony under the direction of Joseph Carlucci presented two concerts for the school children of Natchitoches and surrounding towns, one in the fall and one in the spring. The orchestra composed of students, faculty members, and townspeople has proven to be one of the finest music organizations of its kind in the state. This year the orchestra combined forces with the modern dance class in presenting a concert and dance recital. It also participated in the June commencement exercises.

The informal atmosphere created by the Demonaires at the dances on the campus is one of the main reasons for the band's popularity.

This year's dance music consisted of Latin-American Favorites, Current Popular Hits, and the ever popular "Jump-Tunes."

This year's band was certainly one of the finest the school has ever known, and we feel that only one word describes this band to the fullest . . . "C-R-A-Z-Y"!

Late last spring, three members of the Northwestern Debate Squad traveled to Kalamazoo, Michigan for the National Convention of Pi Kappa Delta, which is the honorary forensic society. Pat Hankins and Anne Torrars copped a Superior rating in debate. Anne Torrars received an excellent in extemporaneous speaking, and Vera Graham was rated excellent in discussion and good in oratory. The girls received a team rating of Superior, and won Sweepstakes, in competition with 130 colleges from all over the country.

The entire squad attended the tournaments, this year, at Ruston, Louisiana, Ada and Durant, Oklahoma, and Fayetteville, Arkansas. At the first tournament of the year, in Ruston, Anne Torrars received a first place in extemp, Vera Graham a first in Poetry Reading and a first in Radio. Torrars and Graham were rated Superior in debate, and Doyle Carter and Phil Wilcox, freshmen debaters received a Good in Debate.

At Ada first and second places were won by Dave Lawson, Phil Wilcox, Merrill Smith and Vera Graham. In debate, Graham and Torrars received a Superior rating. The varsity girls were awarded Senior Women's Sweepstakes, aided by Mazie Dranguet, who reached the finals in several events.

The debators, in addition to attending tournaments, have taken part in sponsoring the two annual meets held on our own campus, and the debate clinic, held early in the fall.

At the time the book went to press, the squad was planning to attend several more tournaments, including those in Naccogdoches, Texas, Arkadelphia, Arkansas, and the Pi Kappa Delta Regional to be held in Lafayette, Louisiana.

Gershwin Concert Orchestra.

Modern Dance Group of T.S.C.W.

The Northwestern Artist Series committee in conjunction with the Natchitoches Concert Association has succeeded in bringing to the campus a varied and entertaining program of well known artists. In selecting the program for the year, the committee seeks to arrange a balanced and varied program which will have wide appeal and interest among the students, faculty, and townspeople. Through the Artist Series program students are given the opportunity to see and hear well known artists, thus supplementing their college experience culturally.

This year the Artist Series included such well-known artists as the Piano Playhouse, Gershwin's Concert Orchestra, Agnes Moorehead, and the Modern Dance group of T. S. C. W.

DRAMATICS

The Northwestern State College drama group, under the direction of Dr. Edna West, has furnished N.S.C. students and faculty and Natchitochians with one of the most outstanding seasons in the history of the college theater.

Beginning the year with "Blithe Spirit" and closing with "Moor Born," the college theater presented every side of life from the aristocrats of England to the wild west of a Jesse James thriller, "Missouri Legend."

The mystery of the supernatural and the gunslinging days of old all had their place on the N.S.C. stage.

Dr. Edna West, since taking over as director of the N.S.C. theater, has produced such established stars as Jack Sharp, Chick Graham, Pat Hankins, Gerald Tilleux and many others. Outstanding newcomers to the college theater were Hester Brown, Don Lyons, Faye Book, and many others.

The guest star of the year was Miss Eve Mouton, whose sterling performance as Madam Arcoti in "Blithe Spirit" won her the acclaim of Northwestern theater goers.

The Demonettes were re-organized and streamlined with new uniforms and routines this year. The objective was to give more spice to half-time performances and to perform at programs and assemblies. Another year should find this organization more in the headlines in Louisiana and we know it will be a credit to Northwestern State College. Much credit goes to their capable director, Phyllis Walton for the outstanding progress made by this group.

Realizing the need for college trained officers in the United States Armed Forces, the government established a Reserve Officers Training Corps unit of the United State Anti-Aircraft on the Northwestern State College campus in 1950.

Having a meager beginning of only two batteries, the corps is now composed of a regiment containing two battalions of four batteries each.

Under the guidance and leadership of Lt. Col. Orlando Greening and his capable staff of instructors, the corps has seen a very prosperous year.

Such a sweet man.

THE STORY IN SEQUENCE

The pictures above tell the story of how the 1954 POTPOURRI Beauties were selected.

Various men's organizations on the campus nominated 33 girls from which the top ten were selected by Mr. Jim Williams, Secretary of Monroe Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Bert Root, owner of Monroe Glass Company; and Mr.

Albert Ringo, owner of Ceil-Et-Albert House of Beauty. The girls were selected on the basis of beauty, poise, and personality in that order.

Through the courtesy of Mr. James A. Noe, owner of Station KNOE-TV, and Mr. Harry Arthur, Program Director, the beauties had the added distinction of being presented over a 30 minute TV program.

Among the glitter of icicles and Potpourri's, the 10th annual Potpourri Ball was held on December 12th carrying out the Christmas theme along with that of "Potpourri Through the Years."

Climaxing the evening's gaiety was the presentation of WANNA BETH SANDERS, as Miss POTPOURRI 1954. She was selected by the POTPOURRI Staff on the basis of leadership, personality, and service to the school.

The entire staff is proud to have such an outstanding senior bear the title name of N.S.C.'s yearbook.

Also presented at this time was the POTPOURRI Court composed of four senior girls chosen on the same qualifications as Miss POTPOURRI. They were: Hazel Davis, Eddy Gene Elliott, Frances Griffin, and Anne Hungerbeeler.

NORTHWESTERN'S DEMONS

Coaches H. Alvin Brown, Charles F. Thomas, Harry Turpin, Walter Ledet.

AND COACH TURPIN IS SELECTED

Co-captains Joe Barkate and Dudley Downing.

“COACH OF THE YEAR”

As a climax to the brilliant show put on by the Demons during the 1953 football season, Harry “Rags” Turpin was selected “Coach of the Year” in the Gulf States Conference. The honor was fitting and more than proper for the NSC mentor.

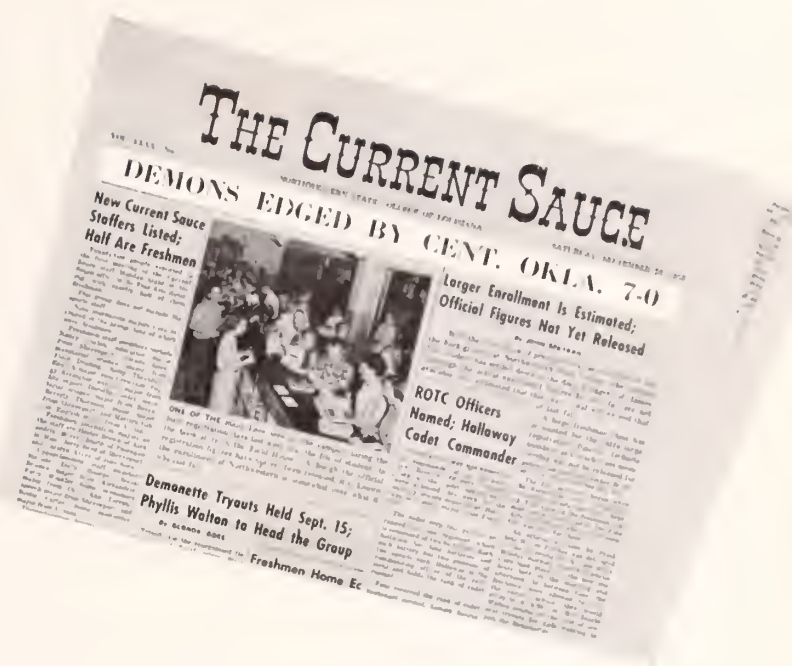

To most of the Northwestern student body, local supporters and opponents, the announcement of “Rags” to the honorary position came as no surprise. Coach Turpin took over his Demon squad with just 16 of his players lettermen, a host of freshman talent undeveloped, and a few transfer students. From this maze of material he molded the 1953 Demons.

The selection of Turpin came on December 8 at a meeting of GSC coaches. Coach Turpin accepted the highest honorary position a GSC coach could have with modesty, giving credit to his assistants, Coaches Walter Ledet and H. Alvin Brown.

Coach Turpin had high praise for his 1953 team, calling it one of the “best teams—mentally, physically, and morally” in the history of Northwestern State College. And he should know, he helped make them so.

Playing two platoon football with a team alternating each quarter, the NSC Demons were defeated 7-0 by Central State College of Oklahoma. Northwestern could do nothing right. Constant fumbling and hap-hazard tackling made the contest a slow, long-drawn out affair.

After the Demons bobbled the ball on the first play from scrimmage, Central recovered and marched for a touchdown. Quarterback Bill Dutton accounted for the score, and half-back Gerald Cheek kicked the extra point.

Orlando Greening

Orlando Greening, a new arrival at Northwestern State College, is settling into his new environment. He is expected to be a valuable member of the college community.

The Demons redeemed themselves in the second contest with Lamar Tech by marching to a 12-6 victory over the Cardinals. Rabid rooters, who showed up for the game even though expecting the worst, found a new spark in the Demon furnace. A shifty-speedy half-back paved the way for the Demons.

Running from the split-T formation, unknown until this time to the Purple and White, Jack Bice cradled a pitch-out and skirted around left end for 45 yards and pay dirt. Again in the early part of the third canto, Bice intercepted a Tech pass and streaked 55 yards to score.

Everyone was surprised at the results, except the players who dug in for the victory.

"Look! A flying Cardinal."

Here, let me help you "Red."

Top: "Gorgeous George" McNew is pinned.

"Ride 'em Cowboys."

In surpassing the McNeese State College Cowboys, 20-6, the Demons showed a strong improvement in hustle and team play. Led by James McNew and Don Millen, NSC romped freely.

Northwestern scored the second time they got their hands on the ball. A pass from James McNew to John Ables accounted for the tally. Don Millen, a brier in the Cowboys' saddle all night, added the second T-D in the third quarter. McNew scored the last tally. George Perkins booted three extra points.

Fans outside the NSC metropolis now seemed to be catching on to the fire and spirit that these boys were generating.

With a never-say-die, come-from-behind attitude that was the Northwestern trademark during the 1953 season, the Demons defeated the Louisiana College Wildcats 9-7 in the annual Cen-la Fair football game. George Perkins came off the bench in the last 30 seconds to kick a field goal that supplied the Demons with their slim margin of victory.

Clyde Chesson scored early in the first period from ten yards out, but the Catmen of La. College drove back and held a 7-6 halftime lead. Late in the final quarter, Jack Bice returned a punt 50 yards and put the Demons into scoring position, and thus set up the game-winning boot.

Northwestern was now definitely in the race for the G.S.C. crown.

The posse arrives . . . too late.

Choke!

Top: "I want you."

Top: "McNew comes through."

Great La. Tech. fielding its four equally brilliant teams, found out very quickly that it only needs one team to win a ball game. NSC showed the arch-rivals that fact by downing them 15-7 in the State Fair contest.

Clyde Chesson was the hero as he did virtually every feat required of a good back. He scored the first T-D for NSC and was a work-horse the entire game. James McNew scored the second touchdown in the third period, and Earl Haynes kicked a fourth quarter field goal to insure the victory.

The score was not indicative of the ball game. The Demons completely out-played the Techsters in every department. And they still called it an "upset"????

Every eye in the GSC was centered on the Demon turf when the NSC team met Southeastern. The outcome of the conference could have been settled in that dilemma. However, the Demons lost 27-19.

The Lions were greedy for victory and scored three touchdowns in the first nine minutes of play before Northwestern buckled down. From then on, it was a hard-fighting Demon machine trying desperately to come from behind.

NSC surged with Searle Walton scoring late in the first quarter on a 41 yard jaunt. James McNew added another tally in the second period on a 75 yard punt return.

Each scored a glory marker in the last half.

Below: "... And then I lunged at him."

Bottom: "You old meany you!"

"Aw Red! You're pulling his leg."

Amid the rain and mud, before a homecoming crowd, NSC scored quickly in the first period and held onto that lead to sub-duce the Northeast State Indians, 7-0. Northeast proved surprisingly hard to beat due to the "dual" factors of "being up for the game" and the condition of the field.

Searle Walton, hard charging fullback whose late season spurts helped the Demons immensely, cracked over from the one yard stripe. The extra point try was good.

The grads wanted to see more but were content with the victory.

Northwestern treked to Lafayette and the Southwestern campus for its last game of the season. In beating the Bulldogs 12-7, NSC had to come from behind. SLI scored first in the initial period when halfback Roth intercepted a McNew aerial setting up the tally. A running drive gave them the T-D.

In the second half of the contest, the Demons fired their pitch-forks and tallied twice to dash the SLI hopes of an upset. Don Millen scored in the third quarter and McNew tossed an 13 yard pass to John Ables in the fourth for the touchdowns.

DEMONS TIE FOR G. S. C. TITLE

Northwestern State College had one of its greatest seasons in the history of Demon basketball, compiling a sensational 23-9 record. Unlike previous seasons, the Purple and White did exceedingly well in Gulf States Conference competition, copping a share of the GSC crown with an 11-1 mark. Against independent opponents and in the NAIA state playoff, NSC boasts an 11-8 showing.

Perhaps the greatest feat of the season, other than the tie in the Gulf States, was capturing the Midwest Invitational Tournament in Terre Haute, Ind. during the Christmas holidays. In that tourney, the Demons beat the best of the small college basketball teams. Wheaton, Central Missouri State, and Findlay College were the "Giants" downed by the Thomas crew.

Opening the season on a road trip into Texas, NSC fell to the North Texas State Eagles, 79-73. The Eagles had to put down a vicious last quarter scoring assault by the Demons to end the game. In Dallas, Texas the next night, the Mustangs shelled 31 points through the nets in the final ten minutes to stomp the Demons, 90-71.

Double-Bubble, no less.

With seven days of rest, NSC journeyed to Fayetteville, Ark. and met their third defeat at the hands of the University of Arkansas, 71-62. A substitute, Don Prumbo, was the Razorbacks hero in cutting down the Demons.

Eager for victory, the Natchitoches squad returned home for their next tilt. Guard Dick Brown and Center Lavelle Langston, combined to score 39 points and thus lead the Demons to an easy 85-54 slaughter of Southern State. Playing again at home on consecutive nights, the Northwestern team split a series with Southeastern Okla. State, taking the first 79-68 and dropping the second, 63-56.

Two nights later, the Demons came on with an air tight zone defense and a smooth fast breaking offense that gained them an easy 81-58 victory over Central College of Missouri. Northwestern then laid off for ten days in order to prep for the Midwest Tourney on December 28-31.

At Terre Haute, the Demons defeated powerful Wheaton College of Illinois, 70-62. The Demons had to come from behind to do it. Wheaton held a 45-32 advantage at the end of the third quarter, but NSC ran away with them in the fourth.

Easy there men, it's only Tech.

CAPTURE MIDWEST TOURNAMENT

Walker drives for two.

Bill Collinsworth's driving lay-up in the final two seconds of overtime, gave Northwestern a semi-final victory over Central Missouri State, 80-78. The regular game ended in a 67-67 tie. Forward Waple Lilley made two final field goals at opportune moments in the overtime period. Lilley's baskets put the Demons out front 76-75 and 78-77.

Northwestern won the Midwest Basketball Tournament by edging Findlay (Ohio) 71-68, in the championship game. George McConathy put the game on ice for the Southerners with a one hand push shot in the last three seconds. Both teams fought evenly in the first quarter, but Red Thomas' Demons exploded in the second stanza for a 44-32 lead at intermission. Findlay closed a 14 point gap to one sole point in the final quarter, but the Demons came through. George McConathy and Bill Collinsworth were named to the All-tournament team.

After a 14 hour bus ride to Mobile, Ala. from the tourney the Demons found the Spring Hill Badgers to be too great an obstacle as they succumbed to a 73-68 defeat.

Playing their first GSC game of the year, Northwestern caught fire in the third period and carved out an 82-65 victory over Northeast State College in Monroe January 5.

In their second conference tilt in Lake Charles, the Demons roped the McNeese Cowboys, 58-51. Northwestern grabbed an early lead and headed McNeese throughout the game.

Opponents started to notice NSC as a title contender when the Demons defeated defending champions Louisiana Tech on their home court, 76-69. The contest was a rough and rowdy affair with a total of 55 fouls being committed.

An overflow crowd was on hand to watch the white hot Demons humble their traditional rivals, Centenary College, 81-66. Coach Thomas' speedy, ball-hawking troops wrapped up the crucial contest for all practical purposes in the first period when they fired 28 points through the strings while limiting the bewildered Gents to a dozen.

WIN 11, LOSE ONE

The Demons picked up two more GSC wins by defeating Louisiana College and Louisiana Tech. Ken Shaw and Jim Thomas paced the Demons to victory over the Pineville crew, 89-71, and the whole Demon team out-clutched the Doggies in an overtime period to pocket a hard-earned win, 81-73.

A visit to New Orleans between semesters found the Demons dropping a close contest to the Loyola Wolfpack, 69-64. The Natchitoches boys literally ran the Pack off the floor in the first period by commanding a 17-5 lead at the end of the quarter. The Jesuit team then made a comeback and finally sub-dued the Demons.

Continuing their winning ways in the GSC, Northwestern made it six and seven by downing Southwestern, 75-65 and Louisiana College 92-67. NSC came alive in the second and fourth periods to take the first win, and romped freely against the Wildcats for that victory.

Now everyone hold hands.

IN G.S.C. PLAY

Still building up their GSC record, the Demons dumped Northeast State, 80-62, and Southwestern Louisiana, 87-82, in a double overtime. Northwestern stomped the Indians readily, but had trouble in downing the Bulldogs on their home court. The Demons were behind until the third quarter. NSC stormed back rapidly to close a 37-29 gap. The Demons went ahead 57-56 in the fourth quarter, and from then on the two squads handed the lead back and forth until the final seconds of the second overtime.

In a non-conference game, Northwestern reserves rallied the Demons in a last quarter surge to destroy the Badgers of Spring Hill College, 71-60. Substitute center, Travis Randles hit two fielders and displayed stellar defensive play in the final stanza while teammate George Davis put on a fancy dribbling exhibition.

BUT DROP N.A.I.A. PLAYOFF

Mighty McNeese's vaunted defense couldn't function as the Demons throttled the Cowboys, 62-38. And in the next contest, the NSC chances of an undisputed first place position were shot as Southeastern Louisiana defeated the Demons in an overtime, 83-75 for their first conference loss of the season.

Taking on the Centenary Gents in Shreveport, the Northwestern team came from behind to down the host team, 77-70. This victory lifted the Demons' morale and the following Saturday night, NSC earned a share of the CSC championship by beating Southeastern, 70-62 before the Natchitoches fans.

On March 1, Southeastern and Northwestern began the best two-out-of-three game series to determine Louisiana's representative in the NAIA Tournament in Kansas City. In the first tilt on the Northwestern court, NSC gave the Lions every possible chance to score and they did. The Lions took the game, 64-60.

TO SOUTHEASTERN

Two nights later in Hammond, the fired-up Northwestern Demons managed a 67-64 victory over Southeastern effecting a 1-1 deadlock in the playoffs. Ken Shaw and Jim Thomas paced the Demons with 23 and 20 points respectively.

Northwestern closed out its season in the rubber game of the NAIA playoff, by losing 54-50. SLC led all the way; 12-8 at the quarter; 24-22 at the half; 39-33 at the end of the third period; and then the final four point margin at the end.

Three days after the NAIA playoff, the GSC office announced its All-GSC teams. Four of NSC's five starters made one of the three teams and the fifth got an honorable mention. Named to the first team by GSC coaches was Bill Collinsworth. Ken Shaw was placed on the second squad and Jim Thomas and Dick Brown made the third string. George McConathy received an honorable mention.

Thus Northwestern ended one of the most successful basketball campaigns in recent years. They won the Midwest Tournament, gained a share of the GSC championship, and placed four on the All-GSC teams bringing a successful season to a successful close.

D E M O N S A R E

The 1953 edition of the Demon track and field team made one of the best records ever established in the history of track athletics at N.S.C.

Northwestern's '53 team, led by Captain Murray "Doak" Walker, won five conference triangular meets and lost only one. They also won the Northwestern Relays and the Gulf States Conference meet to be crowned champions of the G.S.C. for 1953.

Other outstanding performers on the team were Mixon Bankston, G.S.C. shotput champion; Jack Bice, holder of the G.S.C. broadjump record; Ronald Byrd and Ted Duggan, who tied for first place in high jumping; and Clyde Chesson and Lacey Lofton who tied for first in the pole vaulting event.

The broad jump title is held by Bill Collinsworth while Leroy Gillain claims the 880 championship. Waple Lilley and Doak Walker are both members of the record holding mile relay team while Walker is also 440 yard champion.

Murrell Walker and M. B. Childress are the other members of the mile relay team.

Dennis Rider holds the G.S.C. two mile championship and record.

When the 1954 POTPOURRI went to press, the Northwestern State College gymnastic team was vigorously preparing for its spring competitive schedule. The Demon gymnasts are meeting Texas A and M, Texas University, and Mississippi Southern on the collegiate agenda and the Gulf, Southern, and Southwest championships in A.A.U. competition.

The gymnasts have an enviable record of four straight years as Southern A.A.U. champions with the squad placing high in other Southwest competition.

The 1954 spring schedule is as follows: Gulf A.A.U. at Texas A and M, March 13; Mid-South Invitational at Natchitoches, March 24; Southern A.A.U. at New Orleans, April 6; and the Southwestern A.A.U. meet at Ft. Worth, Texas, April 10.

The team completed a highly successful exhibition season in the fall with 15 shows being staged throughout Louisiana High Schools.

N. S. C.

Northwestern State College's swimming team finished its swimming schedule with a record of two wins against five losses. The 1954 team will suffer the loss of only two men since this year's squad was made up primarily of freshmen. Team captain Dennis Rider and Tony Koonce will be lost to the Demon tankers before the '55 season rolls around.

NSC faced stiff competition during the past season with teams from Texas and Florida furnishing the strongest opposition. The past year's squad was composed of nine swimmers and four divers.

However, the future is bright for Coach Piscopo and his swimming Demonfish since the 1955 team will find seven freshmen from the '54 squad returning with a year's experience under their belts.

The Northwestern State College golf squad of 1954 was made up of two lettermen from last year's team, Bill Stanbury, 1953 captain, and Hershel Russell. The three new members of the 1954 team are Ray Guillory, winner of the Air Force Medal Tournament in Japan in 1952, Robert Martin, and Jon Larry Starr.

The spring schedule calls for matches to be played against all Gulf States Conference teams except Louisiana College and McNeese State. The season ends with the GSC tournament at Southeastern Louisiana College, May 14-15.

T E N N I S

With only one returning letterman back from last year's squad newly-appointed tennis coach John Merrill had a big rebuilding job to get the Northwestern State College net-men ready for the Gulf States Conference race.

Unusually good weather plus nine top-notch candidates made the job a lot easier. The squadmen began workouts early in February with positioning being determined by an elimination round-robin.

The tennis season began on March 6 with the NSC crew going into the race wearing the label of "dark horse." However, win, lose, or draw the NSC tennismen gave a good account of themselves during the 1954 season.

Acknowledgments

The 1954 POTPOURRI is at last completed. Into it has gone the work of not only the students whose name appear on the staff, but also the work of hundreds of people without whom the book would never have been completed. The editor and staff therefore would like to say "thanks" to all who have had a part in this, another representation of student life at Northwestern. And, especially to the following, do we express our sincere appreciation:

The Benson Printing Company, especially Mr. W. A. Benson, Jr., who added the final touch always, and Mr. Ralph Langreck and Buddy Shaw who made our stay in Nashville so wonderful and helped so much with the layouts, and Bill Baggett who designed the Opening Section.

The staff of the Shreveport Engraving Company for their splendid work and cooperation, particularly Mr. P. E. Dozier, Jimmy Cobb, Ed Birchett, and Marie Davis.

Mr. Curtis Guillet for the touch of true artistry he contributed to features, classes, and organizations. Also Guy Cheek and Neva Styles for their excellent help on the photographic copy.

Mr. John C. Merrill who proved to be a real sponsor giving us much needed advice and keeping our spirits up when the going got rough.

President H. Lee Prather and the other administrative officers for their helping hand and assistance during times of trial.

Mr. James A. Noe for having our beauties judged over T. V. and Mr. Harry Arthur for his direction and supervision of the contest.

The College Business Staff for its advice and help along lines of financial worry.

You, the Student Body, for your constant support and generous co-operation in many ways.

And, last, but certainly not least, the firms and folks whose advertisements filled the necessary gap in funds that made this book possible . . . they are your sincere friends.

May we again say to those mentioned above, you have our heart-felt thanks.
